Softening Hides.
There are two simple ways of softening leather and raw skins. One is to rub in thoroughly neat's foot oil. Another way is to dissolve three ounces of alum, seven ounces of salt and one and one-half ounces saleratus in sufficient hot rain water to saturate the skin. When cool enough not to scald the hands soak the skin in it for 12 hours; wring out and hang up to dry. When dry repeat this operation two or three times until the skin is sufficiently soft.

The Okolona Band made its first public appearance Tuesday night for a concert. Some of the boys could not be present for one reason or another, but the band made a good showing. Almost every one we heard speak of the performance expressed surprise at the progress the boys have made. We are informed that instruments have been ordered to bring the band up to twenty-five pieces.

Remarkable Negro

A Jackson dispatch to the Times Picayune says: Prof. Hubbard, state director of vocational training, has returned from the A. & M. College where he went to attend a conference of nearly 100 teachers now employed in that work in Mississippi. Speaking of the address of Dr. G. W. Carver, the Tuskegee negro scientist, Professor Hubbard declares him the most remarkable negro the world has ever known—a genius, a wonder a wizard.

For several years Dr. Carver, a very ordinary looking negro, has been experimenting with sweet potatoes and peanuts, and so great has been his successes that he has attracted the attention of scientists the world over. He has been offered marvelous salaries by some of the biggest manufacturing concerns and inventors, but he has declined them all. Thomas Edison offered him more than $100,000 salary per year—not $10,000 as heretofore stated—but he refused to give up his private research work in the south, predicting in his address that the South was destined to yet become the greatest and richest section of the country—all on account of the possibilities of the sweet potato and the peanut. From sweet potatoes he already has extracted ninety-nine separate and distinct valuable products; from peanuts he has made 115 different articles of food and other products of commercial importance—including thirty-two kinds of milk.

Dr. Carver explained to his intensely interested audience that his rubber from sweet potatoes is not yet quite ready to put on the market, but soon will be. He has been offered fabulous sums for his formula. A large number of these products from potatoes and peanuts were exhibited and explained to his hearers and at the conclusion of his talk the entire audience rushed to the platform to thank him for his entertainment.

Dr. Carver is said to have been born in Kentucky. He is not a fluent speaker, but informed his audience that when he was nineteen years of age he could not talk intelligently—not so as to be understood. In view of the fact that Mississippi is paying more attention than ever to the production of sweet potatoes an effort will be made to have this genius come to Jackson at an early day—in fact he promised Prof. Hubbard that he would come and do all he could to boom and boost the lowly yam.—A Macon Beacon.

"Hyphenated Americans."
It is claimed that the term "hyphenated Americans" dates prior to the year 1870, when John Boyle O'Reilly applied it to a remnant of the old-time Toryism which objected to the nationwide celebration which took place that year.

Significance of Wedding Ring.
